

Trials are a way of life. They come in every shape, size, and intensity. Each is monitored by the Lord so we do not walk through more than we can bear. We are called to endure so that He is glorified through our lives.

This book is full of rich insights that the Lord gave the author to persevere in her own trials. It is written from inside her crucible-trial as she leaned on His grace-strength.

You will be encouraged and strengthened through her weaving of truths from His word. She has woven an unique tapestry of hope through His eternal word. Her drawings are joyful and uplifting.

Every trial is an unfolding of God's special grace-provision to enable us to endure. He desires to reveal Himself to you in new ways, and bring out the hidden benefits you could not have obtained except through your trial.

The enemy of our soul wants to destroy your faith. The Lord will use your trials to purify your faith, making you steadfast and immovable. He is your Victorious Conqueror. This book will champion your walk in victory.
